Thomas Cassell & Ethan Sherman Featured at Heartwood

Abingdon, Virginia – The Crooked Road: Virginia's Heritage Music Trail presents Thomas Cassell & Ethan Sherman in concert on Thursday, November 9th from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at Heartwood in Abingdon, VA. This concert is part of The Crooked Road Music Series at Heartwood.

After meeting at the Acoustic Music Seminar in Savannah, GA in 2016, mandolinist Thomas Cassell (Norton, VA) and guitarist Ethan Sherman (Los Angeles, CA) joined forces to create a high-energy duo. Their performances are rooted in the vast cannon of American acoustic music, spiced with dynamic original compositions, and laced with a heavy dose of spontaneity!

The Crooked Road Music Series takes place each Thursday at Heartwood. The series features youth artists each 2nd Thursday along with open jams on the 1st, 3rd, 4th (and 5th) Thursdays to showcase Southwest Virginia performers. The Crooked Road Music Series is sponsored by Heartwood, Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, Virginia Commission for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Heartwood - Southwest Virginia's Artisan Gateway is located off I-81 at Exit 14 in Abingdon, VA, and features food, music, and craft of Southwest Virginia. As part of The Crooked Road's Thursday night live music, our restaurant features delicious southern BBQ to make for a food and music experience only Southwest Virginia can deliver. Admission to the concert is free and donations will be accepted for Crooked Road Traditional Music Education Program (TMEP).
